

Jay Pyrtle, MD

Dr. Pyrtle received his BS in Psychology from UNC Chapel Hill and attended medical school at East Carolina University. He completed Internal Medicine Residency and Fellowship at Duke University. A native of Burlington, NC he moved to Greensboro, NC in 2012 with his wife, Julie, to join LeBauer Gastroenterology. LeBauer GI is part of Cone Health. Dr. Pyrtle has served as LeBauer GI Division Chief since 2019 and as Chief of Cone Health Gastroenterology since January 2025. Dr. Pyrtle and his wife have 2 children and a bernedoodle named Bo. Dr. Pyrtle is excited to join the NCSG Board and looks forward to working with and getting to know colleagues across the state in both the academic and private practice settings as we focus on providing the highest quality care possible to our patients.